

We can drive electric cars to pay our carbon taxes.
We can squeeze our feet into paper straws to reduce our foot print.
We can choose our friends because their skin color is different than ours.
We can rescue all the animals and eat only vegetables.
We can choose a political party
by the way it makes us feel.
We can pay endlessly towards the irreparable repairing of slavery gone by.
We can coexist with killers to die non offensively.

We can continuously peel back well fed layers of guilt
searching for an innocent core Inevitably reaching the rotten pit of our sinful nature.

Or

We can know that we are redeemed
in Jesus Christ who already died for our sins.
